

LLAKES Research Conference 2016

Growing Up and Global Austerity: comparing youth opportunities, aspirations and civic values around the world

27-28 June 2016

Drama Studio, UCL Institute of Education, 20 Bedford Way, London WC1H 0AL

This event has been supported generously by The Sociological Review Foundation

Day 1: Monday 27 June 2016

11.00 – 11.15 Welcome and Introduction

11.15 – 12.30 The United States

- Millennials Rising? Class, Solidarity, and Politics in the Wake of the Great Recession Dr Jennifer Silva, Bucknell University
- Dreamers: Immigrant Youths Fighting for Opportunity
Dr T. Elizabeth Durden, Bucknell University

12.30 – 13.30 Lunch

13.30 – 15.00 Southern Europe

- Growing up in the shadow of global austerity Professor Carmen Leccardi, University of Milano-Bicocca
- From political disaffection to a party system change: The consequences of the economic crisis on young people's political participation in Spain
Dr Gema García Albacete, Universidad Carlos III de Madrid, Spain
- Greek Young People not in Education, Employment or Training, in the era of crisis: NEETs' social inclusion/exclusion, employability, civic values and political behaviour Professor Nikos Papadakis, Dr Panagiotis Theodorikakos and Professor Vassilis Dafermos, University of Crete

15.00 – 15.30 Coffee Break

15.30 – 17.00

Africa

- Cross-country analysis of youth opportunities and aspirations for TVET in sub-Saharan Africa Professor Moses Oketch and Dr Golo Henseke, UCL-Institute of Education
- Young Guns: ‘Politricks’ and the Weaponisation of Youth in the Ghetto Dr Kieran Mitton, Kings College London
- Urban ‘expulsions and the re-making of youth cultures in the securitized state: a South African and UK comparison Dr Jo-Anne Dillabough, University of Cambridge

17.00 – 18.00

Comparative Perspectives

- Global Angers? Becoming Adult in a Neo-Liberal World Professor Cécile Van de Velde, University of Montreal
- The frustrated generation: The exclusion of young people in Arab Mediterranean countries from decent employment and long-term life perspectives Dr Jochen Tholen, University of Bremen

Day 2: Tuesday 28 June 2016

9.30

Welcome and introduction to Day 2

9.30 – 10.30

Keynote Lecture: Making it against the odds: diverse strategies and successful adaptation in school-to-work transitions in England
Professor Ingrid Schoon, UCL-Institute of Education

10.30-10.50

Coffee break

10.50 – 12.00

Northern Europe

- How do young peoples’ prospects vary across Europe? - The IF EU Fairness Index David Kingman, The Intergenerational Foundation
- The Crisis for Contemporary Youth: Young People, Opportunities and Civic Values in the UK Professor Andy Green and Dr Avril Keating, UCL-Institute of Education
- Right and wrong citizens: the reconfiguration of citizenship as patriotic duty in contemporary Russia Professor Hilary Pilkington, University of Manchester and Professor Elena Omelchenko, Higher School of Economics, Russia

12.00 – 13.00

Lunch

13.00 – 14.00

South Asia

- Views on citizenship and political participation in Pakistan Professor Marie Lall, UCL-Institute of Education
- Youth in Delhi: Opportunities, Aspirations, Participation Dr Divya Vaid, Jawaharlal Nehru University, India

14.20 – 15.50

East Asia

- Youth Opportunities, Aspirations and Challenges of Transition to Employment and Adulthood: The Case of South Korea Professor Chon Sun Ihm, Sejong University
- The Changing Nature of Graduate Opportunities in Mainland China Dr Liu Ye, Bath Spa University
- Changing Youth Career Opportunity: A Generational Mobility Perspective Professor Sheng-Ju Chan and Professor Yung-Feng Lin, National Chung Cheng University, Taiwan

16.00

Close of conference

LLAKES is an interdisciplinary research centre that brings together leading experts in learning, employment, civic values, inequality and inter-generational change. To find out more visit, www.llakes.ac.uk or follow us on Twitter (@LLAKESCentre).

LLAKES is hosted by University College London (UCL), at UCL Institute of Education, and is funded by the Economic and Social Research Council (ESRC).